Subject: - Postponement of ongoing Protest Actions.Reference: Your Letter No. MTNL/CO/IRW/21(135)/2010 dated 25-11-2010*Sir,

In view of what has been transpired in our meeting with you and other directors on 25-11-2010 and your letter under reference, we review our ongoing Protest Actions in our core committee meeting held today (26-11-2010). Each one of our 16 Associations/ Unions sincerely believe in the assurance given by you and unanimously opine that the ongoing Protest Actions should be postponed now to restore goodwill and devote themselves to restore the normalcy. They have also opined that the matter of Protest Actions will be reviewed after one month to take stock of the progress of the redressal of our grievances and further appropriate decision will be taken thereafter.

In discussion with you and Director(HR) we have assured our members that the management will not precipitate any punitive actions as every thing is being settled amicably.

We would , therefore like to convey that the programme of ongoing Protest Actions has been postponed with immediate effect and we call upon our members to devote themselves to restore normalcy earnestly.

With Regards

Yours faithfully,

(M. K. Bagchi)
Convener
