Subject: Extension of last date of pro-rata pension option

Sir

We are surprised to see the corporate office order no-MTNL/CO/IRW/27(62)/2008/196 dated 05-06-2012 through which it has been informed that 30th June 2012 is the last extension for exercising the option for pro-rata pensionary benefits by Gr 'A' and 'B' officers absorbed in MTNL. As you know that very purpose of extending last date of option was to give the choice to the absorbed officers to decide between the pro-rata pension and combined pension after the source of payment of combined pension is decided. But, the decision on source of payment is still undecided and being pursued by MTNL management and Associations /Unions, than how such decision of declaring the last date for giving option for pro-rata/combined pension can be taken to create a dilemma in the mind of absorbed officers. This decision has created heart burning amongst the officers.

Therefore, your good self is requested to further extend the last date of pro-rata pension option till the source of payment of combined pension is decided to avoid any unrest amongst the officers.

With regards

Yours sincerely
